MADRID (Spain)

On May 11th, the award presentation of the International Construction Award took place at the Madrid based Hotel Meliá Castilla. It was organized by the Global Trade Leaders' Club to bring companies from all over the world who work in the construction sector, to Madrid to receive these awards. The Global Trade Leaders' Club wished to recognise the vital importance of the construction for country's economy. This trophy was created to distinguish and stimulate companies belonging to such important fields of activity. It constitute a symbol at an international level and recognise the quality of the services provided. The Global Trade Leaders' Club was the motor of these awards. The ceremony started with a work meeting held in the hotel conference room, during which the awarded companies and the Global Trade Leaders' Club were introduced by their representatives, who highlighted both products and services offered by their companies. The Secretary General of the Club gave a brief introduction emphasizing on the reason behind its foundation: to facilitate business relations amongst businessmen from all over the world. He then handed over the award certificate to all attendants as a special distinction to the managing director of each company. All the awardees were then invited to a welcome cocktail, which was followed by a lunch celebration and which took place in an atmosphere of great cordiality. The lunch was presided over by the Secretary General of the Global Trade Leaders' Club, who shared the head table with the following authorities and members of the Diplomatic Corps: Sr. D. Massäer Diallo, Councelor Minister of the Embassy of Senegal; Sr. D. Chander Parkash Gandhi, First Secretary of

The GLOBAL TRADE LEADERS' CLUB was created with the aim of establishing a union between companies who hold international prizes for their quality, prestige and business leadership in their respective sectors of activity and geographical locations.

Membership to the GLOBAL TRADE LEADERS' CLUB means belonging to an international organisation of leading businesses, from 95 different countries, which promotes business relations between its members and generates important investments and business opportunities.

All companies members of the club, from all production and service sectors, are distinguished and of prestigious recognition. It is indeed of added value for its members to belong to a Club which is restricted to previously awarded companies.

The Global Trade Leaders' Club's member companies in CD-ROM

The Global Trade Leaders' Club has edited a CD-ROM which includes all member companies, classified by countries and fields of activity. All of these companies have a well-known prestige and excellent entrepreneurial trajectory, making this CD-Rom an important working tool as well as a development of business opportunities world-wide.
